Farewell Address

giving good advice to the young teachers just starting out.

Mr. Youngblood spoke of the county high school, and of the county superintendent, who always works for the good of the schools and pupils. Much enthusiasm was shown by the teachers when Mr. Youngblood informed them that Miss Widaman, who is at present secretary of the State Association, is being favorably mentioned as its next president. He urged them to attend the next association and work for Caddo county.

Mr. Hume followed Mr. Youngblood and spoke of the laws of the states.

County superintendent Miss Widaman then made an interesting talk, giving advice to all the teachers, telling them in what way they could always be successful in teaching and in pleasing the patrons of the schools. The Normal will be out tomorrow, today and tomorrow being examination, and we wish that each student may be successful in securing his or her certificate.

The teachers then assembled for the closing session of the institute. After the examination regulations were given excellent impromptu talks were given by the faculty.

After the resolutions had been read the association elected the following officers.

President	Prof. Sanders
1st Vice Pres.	Deane
2nd " "	Walker
3rd " "	Bryan
Secretary	Miss Nettie Daniels
Treasurer	W. C. Lowdermilk

A midwinter institute and three district meetings were planned for next winter.

Miss Haskell Weds.

Yesterday evening at six o'clock at the home of her brother, V. W. Haskell, of Lincoln township, Miss Gertrude May Haskell was quietly married to Ed S. Vanbrunt, of Waurika, Evangelist Frank Beach, of the Christian church performing the ceremony in his usual impressive manner. Both the bride and the groom are well known here. The bride was one of the popular clerks at the People's store, and an accomplished young lady, who by her winning ways has won many friends. The groom was formerly of this city, having worked in the O. C. Stephenson Drug store. He is an upright energetic young man, and has many good qualities, and with the added treasure of an excellent helpmate, is destined to make a success in life.

Mrs. Vanbrunt was married in a beautiful dress of white organdie daintily trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and her traveling dress was of blue and white taffeta silk, with a hat to match. The groom wore the conventional black.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanbrunt left this morning for Watonga, where they will spend a few days with his parents, and from there to Waurika where the groom has already prepared a home for the bride.

The Democrat joins their many friends and acquaintances in wishing for them a bright and happy future.
